BUZZWIN MAKES ALL IN WINTER STAYERS FINAL

BLACKISTON AND WALKER COMBINE FOR FOUR-TIMER

Buzzwin

ANZ

The most valuable race around Australia on Monday was the final of the Winter Stayers Series at Echuca, writes Darryl Sherer, and the $30,000 race was won in dashing style by Buzzwin (5 g Danewin – Out Of The Woods, by Touching Wood), who made virtually all of the running under Michael Walker to come home lengths clear at the end of the 2100 metres and wrap up a big day for Walker and Flemington trainer Nigel Blackiston.

Sydney Spring Feature Entries

The Australian Turf Club has taken increased nominations for its three Group 1 feature races – the Epsom Handicap, Metropolitan and Spring Championship Stakes – for the richest day of racing during the Sydney Spring Carnival, 'Epsom Super Saturday.'

This year, the $500,000 Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and $400,000 The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) nominations have increased by 28% (121) and 20% (118) respectively.

Among those nominated in the Epsom Handicap are 11 Group 1 winners including the Joseph Pride-trained Sacred Choice (Choisir). The six-year-old's aim this Sydney Spring Carnival will be to become the only mare to win the Doncaster/Epsom double in the same year.

The Metropolitan has attracted a large contingent of imported runners who originate from Ireland (11), Japan (1), Great Britain (7), France (2), Germany (1) and USA (1).

"There are 22 imported horses from outside Australasia among the nominations, and the presence of these imports will add plenty of intrigue to this year's race," said Executive General Manager of Racing, Matt Rudolph.

ALOHA TRIALS WELL

Last season's Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) winner Aloha (Encosta de Lago) barrier trialled satisfactorily at Cranbourne yesterday. The Mick Price trainee was ridden by Glen Boss in the second heat of the morning, writes Brad Waters. Aloha coasted to a length win over the recent Flemington winner Chosen To Fly (Choisir) in a time of 48.04 seconds for the 800m heat. The dual Group 1-winning mare Yosei (Invincible Spirit) finished fourth in the heat.

Price's stakeswinning mare Dubleanny (Dubleo) won the 10th heat of the morning over the speedy Galbraith (Anabaa) in the smart time of 47.14 seconds. Dubleanny won her last three starts in the autumn, with her last two wins occurring at Listed level at Morphettville and Flemington.

Golden Rose winner Toorak Toff (Show A Heart) won the opening trial over 990m by 2-1/4 lengths, running 59.61 in the heavy going. Retired last December after he was diagnosed with a breathing problem, Toorak Toff returned to the track when finishing 17th in last season's Goodwood Handicap (Gr 1) over 1200m.

He is likely to meet Aloha in this Saturday's Bobbie Lewis Quality (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington.

DEAUVILLE COMMENCES TODAY

The Arqana August Yearling Sale at Deauville commences today and a full report of the first session will appear in tomorrow's issue.

GOULBURN ABANDONED

Yesterday's Goulburn meeting was abandoned due to the state of the track.

In making this decision Racing NSW took into consideration that there are two fixtures on next week that would be impacted if the Goulburn meeting went ahead later in the week. Shoalhaven Turf Club (Nowra) will race on Sunday 28 August and Queanbeyan Racing Club will race on Monday 29 August.

LISMORE INSPECT

Racing NSW Stewards will conduct a track inspection on Tuesday morning to determine the fate of today's (23 August) scheduled Lismore race meeting. "The (Lismore) track is very heavy and surface water is present that is causing us some concern," said NRRRA chief steward, Mark Holloway. "The track has received more than 50 mls of rain in the past two days and more rain is predicted. At this stage the meeting is in doubt and we will make a final inspection in the morning."

Buzzwin was the fourth winner from five runners on the day saddled by Blackiston, and all four were ridden by Walker.

Walker was allowed to set a steady pace on Buzzwin and he turned for home a length clear, quickening up to go further ahead with 200 metres to go, eventually defeating Riverina Highway (Tailings), easing down by two and three-quarter lengths.

"He has certainly deserved a nice race like that," a smiling Blackiston said afterwards. "He has raced very consistently this preparation, held his condition throughout and has shown he can get a strong 2100 metres."

Blackiston paid $70,000 for Buzzwin as a yearling at the 2008 Inglis Premier Sale, and after yesterday's win his record stands at four wins from 17 starts with earnings of over $74,000. "We'll see how he pulls up. He's a big heavy horse that needs the jar out of the ground so we will see how the tracks carry on. Today's heavy ground suited him well."

Walker explained that he is getting used to riding Buzzwin. "He needs to get his confidence and then you let him roll. He had them off the bridle and chasing before the straight and he was just ticking over in the straight. He did it well and he can win again, he's in good form right now."

Walker and Blackiston introduced two winning debutants earlier in the day when Railblazer (3 g Mossman – Khaptrina, Flying Spur) raced prominently all the way and then stayed on strongly to land the $12,000 3yo Maiden Plate over 1200 metres, and Menados (4 g Zabeel – Tantamount, by Last Tycoon) was impressive in winning the $12,000 Open Maiden over 1400 metres, running away from the $1.90 favourite in the run to the line to score by a widening two lengths.

"He is still very much a work in progress, in fact both are very similar physically and have a lot of improvement in them," Blackiston explained. "Menados is a typical Zabeel, we have taken him along quietly and he can certainly gallop. I will take him quietly and hope that he can make up into a horse in the Autumn. Railbazer can be bit of a worrier at home and he was able to get a soft lead, but he stayed on really well and will improve again so there is some up side to him. I paid $30,000 for him at last year's Scone Yearling sale so it is always nice to win a race early."

Of Menados, Walker shared Blackiston's sentiments. "He showed us something in a jumpout at Flemington two weeks ago and he did it nicely today without any real idea what he was doing in the straight. I think he could be the real deal next time in."

SINGAPORE NEWS

Locally-Owned Galloper Joins An Elite List

Owner Dr Tan Kai Chah was a relieved man following the win of One More Minute (Iglesia) in the $65,000 Graduation Stakes over 1600m on the Polytrack on Sunday, writes Craig Brennan.

But a lot of his thoughts were elsewhere following a special win in Ireland on Saturday.

The one and only horse he owns in Ireland – which came about following a marketing exercise by the Irish Thoroughbred Marketing team last year – was successful at the Curragh on Saturday night (Singapore time).

Dr Tan's Dragon Pulse, ridden by Fran Berry who had a stint in Singapore towards the end of 2009 and early in 2010, took out the day's feature event, Galileo EBF Futurity Stakes (Gr 2), over seven furlongs.

The Futurity Stakes has a long and distinguished honour roll with some of the top names of leading Irish horses that include Cape Blanco (2009), Arazan (2008), New Approach (2007), Teofilo (2006), Horatio Nelson (2005), Oratorio (2004), Van Nistelrooy (2002), Hawk Wing (2001) and Giant's Causeway (1999).

It was the second year running that trainer Jessica Harrington has taken the Futurity Stakes – having won the race last year with Pathfork (Distorted Humour) – and she joins the likes of Aidan O'Brien and Jim Bolger as multiple winners of the race, while other winning trainers include John Oxx, Mark Johnston and Mick Channon.

Dr Tan said the Goffs National Stakes (Gr 1) over seven furlongs at the Curragh on 10 September was likely to be Dragon Pulse's next assignment, providing the ground had some cushion in it.

"The track has been quite firm and we want a little bit of give," said Dr Tan. "The National Stakes is a Group 1 race and he looks like a Group 1 horse in the making."

"Hopefully when he finishes this campaign he will spell well and then train on next year, and hopefully he will get to one of the Classic races."

"It is every owners dream to own an English, Irish or French Classic horse, and with Dragon Pulse still being a colt hopefully we may have one."

Dragon Pulse, by Kyllachy from the Croco Rouge mare Poetical, was purchased for €120,000 ($210,000) and has raced three times, running a debut second over six furlongs at the Curragh on 3 June. He was then successful over that trip at Leopardstown on 21 July before his victory on Saturday.

Besides his team of horses in Singapore and Dragon Pulse in Ireland, Dr Tan is establishing a stable of horses to race in Japan after being granted the rare privilege of owning racehorses by the Japan Racing Association just over 12 months ago.

EUROPEAN SALES NEWS

Arqana Begins

The Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale – the first major European yearling sale of 2011 – got underway in a rain soaked Deauville yesterday afternoon as we were going to press. The first session contained 113 lots.

The sale is in a new format this year, with 226 yearlings being offered over Monday and Tuesday and then more general sessions follow on Wednesday and Thursday. In conjunction with the new format, Arqana have unveiled their redeveloped sales complex that includes a redesigned and renovated sales ring and revamped parade ring, as well as a new restaurant and bar.

Arqana have not held back in promotion of their sale to an international audience, and have a large Australasian contingent here this year including Peter Maher, Terry Henderson, Justin Bahen, Nevin Bottica, Steve Moran, Paul Makin, Guy Mulcaster, Paul Fudge and Treve Williams.

From Hong Kong, Mark Richards from the Hong Kong Jockey Club, as well as John Size and Trevor da Cruz representing his father Derek, are in attendance.

Damon Gabbedy, Arqana's Australasian Representative, said yesterday: "Deauville seems to be a good destination venue and is attractive to Australasians who want to experience the sales and French racing."

"The two Group 1 races and Group 2 races on yesterday's card at Deauville made for a fantastic day's racing. Taken as a package, Deauville and French racing has been an easy sell to an Australasian audience."

Guy Mulcaster, who is at Arqana for the first time, said: "I have enjoyed the hospitality. This trip has been a good insight and I have had a good look at the horses."

"Arqana have done a magnificent job on the complex, and I will be back in December to hopefully get some horses to take back to Australia."

A full report from the first session will be run in tomorrow's issue.

AUSTRALIAN-BREDS – THE SPIRIT OF WINNING

Pinwheel

UNBEATEN STAKES RUN CONTINUES

Australian-bred gallopers maintained their perfect record in domestic stakes races this season, making another clean sweep of black type features run around the nation at the weekend.

The unbeaten run now stretches to 22 and from the 10 stakes races on Saturday, every placegetter bar one carried the (Aus) suffix.

Darley's reigning Champion Sire Lonhro has picked up where he left off last season, with home-breds Pinwheel and Skytrain delivering him a stakes double at Warwick Farm.

Six-year-old Pinwheel scored a career peak when landing some big bets in the Group 2 Warwick Stakes, beating G1 winner Ilovethiscity and Queensland visitor Startsmeup in the 1400m feature.

Aus-breds have won 10 of the past 11 Warwick Stakes, with winners including Racing To Win, Private Steer and Lonhro himself, who won the race twice. The legendary Kingston Town won the Warwick in each of the three years he won the Cox Plate – 1980-82.

Skytrain was successful in the Listed Show County Quality, with both of Lonhro's winners being for the Peter Snowden-Kerrin McEvoy combination. It was the 13th time in a row the Show County had been won by an Aus-bred galloper.

A quartet of exciting three-year-olds strutted their stuff at Warwick Farm and Moonee Valley.

Patinack Farm claimed a two-state stakes double with their fillies Kneeling and Pane In The Glass.

Encosta De Lago filly Kneeling took out the Listed William Crockett Stakes, and in doing so joins the great Black Caviar on the race's honour roll.

Pane In The Glass was Group 1-placed last season and showed she had returned in fine style in taking the Group 3 Silver Shadow, making it 21 wins in a row for Aus-breds in the race. Previous winners have included Samantha Miss, Gold Edition, Mnemosyne, Ha Ha, Skating and Triscay. Pane In The Glass is by Testa Rossa, who completed a weekend stakes double when Aus-bred World Fortune won at G3 level in Macau.

Amah Rock had come off an Echuca maiden win but punters saw enough to back him heavily in the Mitchell McKenzie Stakes, and his win maintained the perfect record of Aussies in the race, which has been run 18 times. Last year's winner Anacheeva went on to claim the Caulfield Guineas, and that is the direction Amah Rock is heading.

Manawanui had won a trial by 10 lengths, and lived right up to that when joining illustrious company with his Group 3 Up & Coming Stakes win. Aus-breds have now won 19 in a row, with previous winners including Fastnet Rock, Exceed And Excel, Testa Rossa, General Nediym, Our Maizcay and Mahogany. Like Magic Millions Guineas and G2 Queensland Guineas winner Torio's Quest, Manawanui is a son of Coolmore's Danehill shuttler Oratorio.

Pane In The Glass ($32,000) and Manawanui ($45,000) were both purchased out of the Inglis Classic Sale at bargain prices, while Kneeling ($340,000) and Amah Rock ($200,000) are Inglis Easter graduates.

Exceed And Excel added a new Group 1 winner with Margot Did in the UK G1 Nunthorpe Stakes at the weekend, and Peter Moody is of the opinion his Australian-based daughter Kulgrinda can emulate that feat after the four-year-old mare made it stakes wins in consecutive starts this campaign when successful at the Valley. Kulgrinda is on target for a clash with Sepoy in the Manikato Stakes next month.

Dane Shadow mare Red Tracer rounded out the Eastern seaboard stakes action when justifying favouritism in the Listed Toy Show Quality at Warwick Farm.

In the west Idyllic Prince led home an Aus-bred trifecta in the Listed Goodwood Sprint, beating WA Horse of the Year Playing God and Elliottto. This race has now been won 17 times in a row by AUS breds, helped in no small part by Idyllic Prince himself winning the last four!

And finally, the Melbourne Cup dream is still alive for the 2009 spring discovery Alcopop, who made a triumphant return to winning form in the Listed Penny Edition Stakes at Morphettville. Trainer Jake Stephens is eyeing off another Cups tilt after his now seven-year-old son of Jeune failed to fire last spring.
